EDPR secures a 200 MW PPA for a new solar power plant in the US

Madrid, April 6th, 2018: EDP Renováveis, SA (“EDPR”), through its fully owned subsidiary EDP Renewables North America LLC, secured a 20-year Power Purchase Agreement (“PPA”) with Hoosier Energy Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc. to sell the energy produced from its 200 MW Riverstart solar power plant.

Riverstart solar power plant is located in the state of Indiana, US, with start of operations expected for 2022.

With this new arrangement EDPR will expand its solar footprint in the country, while executing its growth strategy based on the development of competitive projects with long-term visibility.
