- Process the refund to shareholders of the amounts calculated as recovered tax under the applicable Double Taxation Agreements (DTAs); the refund is completed by financial intermediaries

Yes  No

Additionally, the holder is hereby informed that all requested personal data are mandatory, unless expressly indicated otherwise. As a consequence, were the shareholder to refuse to provide these data, it will not be possible to carry out the financial return, through financial intermediaries, of the recovered tax amounts under the applicable Double Taxation Agreements (ADT).

Furthermore, the holder is hereby informed that his/her personal data may be disclosed to the EDPR group companies. These companies undertake to process the aforementioned data solely for the fulfilment of the abovementioned purposes. The data may also be disclosed to the financial intermediaries and centralisation entities for the activities mentioned above. The holders' data may be processed by an appropriate service provider engaged by EDPR. This service provider will process the data solely for the purposes defined by EDPR and pursuant to its instructions. The provider will strictly comply with the legal regulations on personal data protection, information security and other applicable standards.

Additionally, EDPR hereby informs that any personal data provided by the shareholder will be retained for at least the legally established period during which the Tax Authority is entitled to check and, where applicable, settle any outstanding tax.

EDPR hereby informs the shareholder that the latter has the right to withdraw the consent to process his/her data at any time and that the shareholder may exercise his/her rights to access, rectify, erase, oppose, limit as well as the right to data portability by sending a letter to EDPR – / Serrano Galvache, 56 – Parque Empresarial Parque Norte – 28033 MADRID, or an email to General.SecretaryEDPR@edpr.com, as per the applicable legislation.

Furthermore, whenever the shareholder believes that EDP has breached his/her rights under the applicable data protection legislation, the shareholder may file a complaint with the "Agencia Española de Protección de Datos".
